The following is a direct script of a short-form video teaching intended for animation. Some dialogue is conversational in nature and designed to illustrate theological concepts. We encourage viewing the video to complement the written transcript below.

Scripture Sketches: "Until Heaven and Earth Pass Away: God's Law Still Applies (Matthew 5)"

Yeshua:
"Do not think that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets; I have not come to abolish them…."

Isaac:
"Excuse me!"

Yeshua:
but to fulfill them.

Isaac:
"Teacher! Excuse me!"

Isaac:
"Okay, so what you're really saying is… you're about to do away with certain commandments in the law, but like, in a very spiritual, fulfilled kind of way, right?"

Yeshua:
"No. I did not come to abolish them. Not even the smallest letter, not even a single stroke will pass from the Law until heaven and earth pass away."

Isaac:
"Right, right—but that's just, like, metaphorical. Like, once you're no longer with us, that's the heaven and earth passing away, yeah? So after that, no more Law of Moses?"

Peter:
I don't know how you came to that conclusion. That is literally the opposite of what Jesus is saying. Please, continue the sermon, teacher.

Yeshua:
Thank you Peter.

Yeshua:
Until heaven and earth pass away—not a single part of the Law will disappear until all is accomplished."

Isaac:
"Okay but… is it possible that all could be accomplished before heaven and earth actually pass away? Like, technically?"

Peter:
"If that were the case, the sky and the earth would no longer exist. So no. Please, continue teacher.

Yeshua:
…Whoever relaxes even the least of these commandments and teaches others to do the same, he'll be called least in the kingdom of heaven. but whoever does them and teaches them will be called

Isaac:
LEGALISTIC! Whoever does and teaches the commandments will be called legalistic?

Yeshua:
"No… whoever does them and teaches them will be called GREAT in the Kingdom of Heaven."

Isaac:
"Just for now? The consequences and rewards for obedience to the Law only apply for, like… the next few years, right? Once you establish your church, it's all about love and grace, right?"

Peter:
"Jesus said until heaven and earth pass away. What part of that is unclear?"

Isaac:
"When will I know that happens? Could heaven and earth "pass away" without me knowing?"

Peter:
"Look around you, brother. There are the heavens… there's earth. Jesus is saying that as long as you can see the sky, hills and the trees, you are obligated to obey the Law of Moses. Those who obey God's law will be great in his Kingdom, those who disobey will be the least."

Isaac:
Ohhhh, I get it now! As long as creation exists, the Law of Moses still applies—the Sabbath, feast days and food laws, as well as loving your neighbor as yourself.

Peter:
That's exactly right, brother …

Yeshua:
"… Alright, are we done with the interruptions? … let me take it from the top."

Yeshua:
"Do not think that I have come to do away with the Law or the Prophets…"
